

HOOCHIE COOCHIE MAN

(Willie Dixon - © 1954; private edition BLAXmusic)

START: repeatedly A/D/C/A

1. Gypsy woman told my mother, a while before I was born:
“You got a boy-child coming, he’s gonna be a son of a gun.
He’s gonna make all them women, jump and shout.
And then the world will know what it’s all about.”

CHORUS: Cause you know I’m here, yeah, everybody knows I’m here.
Well, I’m your Hoochie Coochie Man,
Yeah, yeah, you know I’m here.

2. On the seventh day, on the seventh hour
On the seventh month, seven doctors say
“He was born for good luck”, and that you see
I’ve got seven hundred dollars baby, don’t you mess with me.

& CHORUS

& SOLO (Git-Patty) **&

3. I got a black cat bone, I got a mojo, too,
I got John the conqueror, gonna mess with you.
I’m gonna make you girls lead my by my hand
And then the world will know I’m your Hoochie Coochie Man.

& CHORUS

& SOLO (Gi-Pitt) & & SOLO (Harp-Joc)
